

Create something today...

*A poem, a blog post, a handmade card, a painting, a song,
a souffle, a software application.*

*The form is unimportant, only the passion matters.
And the calling of your own soul to the aliveness of BEING in this moment.*

*Seek not perfection and release all judgment.
Simply put your heart into it.*

Stamp your name upon it, imbue it with love and PRESENT it to the world.

It matters more than you know!

*Then celebrate it.
Celebrate you.
Celebrate the life that gave it to you.*

C'mon... We're waiting!
